SUBJECT: Personnel Security Status of Persons Involved
With Functions of Foreign Intelligence
Surveillance Court

1. The Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court established by Public Law 95-511 is expected to have its judges designated on 16 May 1979. Officials of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts are desirous of having those persons who will constitute the administrative staff of the court available for duty by that date. This will require such persons to have current background investigations with results adjudicated as meeting the criteria of DCID 1/14 for access to sensitive compartmentated information (SCI). 25X1
